

Note: Remember that this system should be set up from the student's point of view, not yours. If this is the front of the classroom, positives will be to the left and bottom.